

Health Symposium To Study Smoking

Youthful smoking and the health problem it creates will get major attention during the South Bay area's first community health symposium on respiratory disease to be sponsored by the Christmas Seal association.

Mrs. Eileen O'Brien, program chairman and director of Social Service, Harbor General Hospital, said the symposium will be held Wednesday, May 8 from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at the Plush Horse Restaurant. The symposium is open to the public.

Following a morning program, in which respiratory diseases are defined and described, the afternoon session will explore the role of tobacco in such diseases.

DR. LEO F. CAIN, South Bay College president, will moderate a panel discussion: "Who Should do What About Smoking by Youth?" Members of the panel will be Wendell Black, president of Harbor Junior College; Mrs. Rosemary Peterson, Gardena, housewife; and two high school seniors, Miss Linda McVeigh, Hawthorne High, and Don Strouder, Leuzinger High.

Robert R. Scholl, chairman of the T.B. association's regional advisory committee, said members of the medical, educational and civic communities are cooperating to present the symposium, "Action in Respiratory Disease Education."

Participants and planners in addition to Mrs. O'Brien are: Miss Mary Turner, San Pedro, vice principal, San Pedro High School; Bill Soady, Harbor City, organizer, Retail Clerks International Assn.; Masashi Uriu, M. D., Gardena; Lloyd C. Pillsbury, Rolling Hills, Douglas Aircraft Co., Inc., executive; George M. Morehart, Torrance, contractor; Mrs. Kenneth McVey, Torrance, housewife; and Joseph Piatt, Tor-

A GIANT COMES TO PENINSULA CENTER

Trust a giant to thoroughly investigate the lay of the land before making its move. That's what California Federal, the giant of the nation's federal savings associations, did before establishing a permanent Palos Verdes Peninsula office. Now there's proof that the giant liked what it saw here. This fall, California Federal will move across the street from its temporary office in Peninsula Center to its new, million dollar, 3 story office building. This will be the giant's permanent peninsula home. It will also provide rental space for other businesses.

Here are the facts that convinced the giant that the Peninsula climate is a good business climate. Peninsula growth rate is 4 times Los Angeles County's. Personal incomes are far above national averages. California Federal home loans in the area have increased every year—last year loans in force totalled nearly $12,000,000.

The giant knows the Palos Verdes area is one of Southern California's best areas for business. It is also convinced the Peninsula Center is the best place to do business on the Peninsula.

Dr. Heaton To Lecture At Calvary

Dr. C. Adrian Heaton, president of the California Baptist Theological Seminary at Covina, will speak at the 7 p.m. service Sunday at the Calvary Baptist Church. A reception will follow.

Dr. Heaton's appearance is occasioned by Calvary's recent emphasis of the Christian work of nearby Baptist institutions.

The Covina Seminary, fully accredited with the American Assn. of Theological Schools, has launched an extensive building and expansion program this year, including a proposed library and new married couples dormitory.

The Rev. H. Carl Kuester will conduct the dual services at 8:30 and 11 a.m. Sunday on "The Mystery of a Holy Relationship."

Sunday School, for all ages, is scheduled at 9:45 a.m.
